

The 125th Anniversary Celebration of The Field Library

- 1827 Catalog of Books for Sale by James Brewer [druggist located on Washington St., earliest extant catalog]
- From 1887 Catalogue of The Field Library [first true stand-alone library building located on Smith Street in riding stable, and established in 1887 by Cortlandt de Peyster Field with 5,000 titles purchased from Scribner's]
- The Field Library, 4 Nelson Ave.
- 1886 Catalogue of Books in the Peekskill Free Circulating Library [housed on Main St. in Couch's law office and was a collection of books from the various prior subscription libraries]
- Field Library, South St. & Union Ave.